Telegram Today Announces Practical Victory, for Senate Will be O. K.

A telegram from Congressman John J. Esch today says:

"House passed the sundry civil bill, containing item of $150,000 for Camp Douglas military reservation."

This means that the thick of the fight for the establishment of a federal military reservation at Camp Douglas, Wis., has been passed and that the La Crosse congressman has been victorious.

Mr. Esch was uncertain until the bill came to a vote that he would be able to have the Camp Douglas item passed by the house. Now, however, that it is through the lower body, he believes it a foregone conclusion that it will be passed readily by the senate. Mr. Esch is consequently much elated.

The establishment of the military reservation at Camp Douglas means that the regular army will make use of the camp, for artillery and rifle practice and that the Wisconsin militia will have the advantage of association with regulars during their annual encampments.

The complete victory Mr. Esch won, was rather unexpected, even by himself, as he had anticipated some difficulty in getting the appropriation through, owing to the large number of appropriations included in the general bill.

News dispatches over the Scripps-McRae Press Association wires this afternoon say that the House today passed the militia bill appropriating two million dollars, mostly for rifle practice. This means much more in connection with the Camp Douglas proposition, as it is likely that with large appropriation for gun practice detachment of regulars will soon be stationed at the Wisconsin military reservation.

W. J. Naylor, cashier of the Citizens' State bank of O'Huston, Minn., was a business visitor in the city today.

HOUSER HELD TODAY

(Special Tribune Dispatch.)

MADISON, Wis., June 19.—Secretary Houser this morning was held for trial on a charge of attempted bribery by Judge Donovan in municipal court. His bond was raised to $2,000 and was signed by Senator George P. Miller.

The court held that the "offense had been committed, because of the uncontradicted testimony of Host."

There being no rebuttal, only a contradiction of the relevance of the testimony. The work of drawing a jury will be begun tomorrow and the court will set date for trial, probably for Thursday, June 28.

20 YEARS FOR KIDNAPPER KEANE

Former Prominent Broker Who Stole Muth Child Gets Quick Justice

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.) PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—John J. Keane, former broker and once wealthy was today sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment for kidnapping 7-year-old Freddie Muth.

At the trial the boy told of his captivity and of how he was starved and not permitted to sleep, in an old vacant house, for a week.

Keane pleaded that the boy "had every chance to escape if he wanted to."

Keane kidnapped Muth a week ago by sending a message to his school room telling him his mother was ill, and making off with the child when he responded to the decoy. The mother has been prostrated.

At 10 o'clock this morning Keane faced the magistrate in preliminary hearing. An hour later the grand jury considered the testimony resulting in his indictment. The prisoner was taken before Judge Sulzberger and testimony was heard, the case was submitted and the prisoner sentenced to an incredibly short time from his apprehension.

Two hours and a half from the time he was arraigned for preliminary hearing Keane was ready for commitment to the penitentiary.

It is also said Keane is a former forger and bank thief.

WOMAN TRIED TO ASSASSINATE TREPOFF IN PRINCESS GARB

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—It is reported an attempt was made to assassinate Trepoft by a woman masquerading as Princess Narishkin. The woman gained admittance to the palace and drew a revolver when Trepoft approached. The weapon was seized and the woman was arrested. The police deny it.

20 DAYS FOR RESISTING OFFICER

John Freeman, a north side young man, was arrested by Officer Tom McDonough for being intoxicated and disorderly. He resisted to such an extent that when on arrival at a point opposite the livery stable of Wilson and Robertson it was necessary to put the "come-alongs" on him. He was arraigned before Judge Brindley just before dinner on a charge of resisting an officer, but on a plea for clemency based on former good conduct, entered by Chief Hugh Byrne, he was given only a jail sentence of 20 days.

ED. CASE LEAVES CITY FOR MADISON

Northwestern Agent is Promoted After 25 Years of Service

Ed. S. Case, who for many years has been general agent of the Chicago &amp; Northwestern at this city will leave tomorrow morning for Madison, having been promoted to general freight agent at that point, which is one of the most important on the Northwestern in the state.

Mr. Case will be succeeded here by W. L. Colburn, until now agent of the Northwestern at Sparta.

Mr. Case's departure will be regretted by his many friends and business associates here. He has worked in La Crosse all his life, for about twenty-five years, having started here in the employ of the Northwestern as office boy and remaining with them continuously.

Mr. Case will move his family to Madison as soon as convenient.

LENROOT SPEAKS AT WHITEHALL

A number of La Crosse people heard Irvine L. Lenroot, republican candidate for the nomination for governor, speak to a large audience at Whitehall last night.

Mr. Lenroot said in substance:

"In this campaign I welcome the support of every man who is willing to aid in fighting for and carrying out the principles of our party in this state. I do not expect and will not receive the support of those who would tear down that which has been built in the last six years."

AGGIE MEYER MUST DIE JUN 29 FOR SLAYING HUSBAND

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

JEFFERSON CITY, June 19.—The supreme court overruled the motion for a rehearing of the Aggie Meyers' case. She was sentenced to hang June 29, for the murder of her husband. Folk says he will reprieve her for thirty days.

ST. LOUIS TO BUILD BIG FREE BRIDGE

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce has authorized a favorable report on the bill authorizing St. Louis to build a free bridge over the Mississippi. The house later passed it.

The house passed the militia bill appropriating two million mostly for rifle practice.

The committee authorized a favorable report on the bill appropriating $25,000 to the president's traveling expenses.

WEDDING AT SPARTA THIS EVENING

Vernon Styles, a prominent young man of Sparta, and Miss Nellie Didge of the same place, will be married there at the home of the bride, Miss Didge is the daughter of the senior member of the prominent firm of Dodge &amp; Davis. The wedding will occur at 8 o'clock tonight.

Mr. J. V. Palmer and wife of this city, are among the visiting guests. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued.

LA CROSSE GRABS UP TWIRLER

No Releases Will be Made Now

STAR PITCHER, SAYS PRES.

La Crosse Now has Fastest Bunch of Twirlers in Wisconsin

George Bubser, released by Green Bay for some unknown reason yesterday, has been signed by La Crosse. La Crosse did not let any moss grow under its feet in grabbing up the man credited with being one of the fastest twirlers in the state league.

"Yes," said President John Elliott, of the La Crosse League association, today, "we have signed Bubser. We consider him the fastest pitcher in the state league and think we've made a good stroke."

Mr. Elliott said that none of the present members of the La Crosse team will be released to make room for Bubser. He will be added to the present personnel and no changes will be made, at least for the present. It is probable when the salary limit matter is adjusted it will be necessary for La Crosse to drop one man, unless the limit is increased to permit all to stay.

La Crosse now has a star team, the best in the state, according to the views of fans and managers and it cannot afford to lose any of its players.

Green Bay and La Crosse are playing today and La Crosse expects to land about three out of the four games in the series.

Powers in Eau Claire.

President John T. Powers, president of the league, has left La Crosse for Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls, for the purpose of injecting some ginger into the baseball people there. He will strengthen up the Eau Claire-Chippewa falls team and make an effort to aid the managers in putting the team up in the race.

CHILD FALLS TWO STORIES AND STRIKES ON HEAD BUT IS UNHURT

APPLETON, Wis., June 19.—A fall of a child from a second story balcony, escaping without a scratch, and the fall of a dog from the same place, resulting in the animal's death, is the strange story from Kaukauna. The 2-year-old child of James Frank fell two stories, striking on its head on the ground which had been softened by recent rains. The child's dog fell, fracturing two legs. It had to be shot.

CAMP OPENING DELAYED

It was impossible to open the Y. M. C. A. summer camp up river yesterday owing to the fact that the camping grounds owned by the association were inundated. It may be possible to occupy the camp later in the week, if the water continues to fall at the present rapid rate.

The young son of Fireman E. J. O'Neal, of station No. 4, north side, is seriously ill.

"SUAVEGRAFTER" DOOMED TO GO

Grant E. Reynolds Writes Tribune Some Impressions on "Things"

The Tribune is in receipt of the following very interesting letter from Mr. Grant E. Reynolds, former president of the La Crosse board of trade, now one of the leading merchants of east-central Iowa, located at Cedar Rapids:

Dear Fellows, While I have not written of late I am not insensible to the improvement and wonderful growth of The Tribune. The highest compliment which occurs to me at this time is: The Tribune has the same thrifty, newsy appearance of our Evening Gazette, conceded the best daily in Iowa. This may seem strong to you. The Gazette is a very old paper but it is run upon the Tribune line—anti-graft. All the news regardless of a few who take it for granted they should be immune of course.

The Gazette takes very little patent medicine money, but strives for the home institution all the time. Some of the papers in La Crosse would have received great publicity and a thorough roasting in this lively city. Your Saturday evening number is a credit to La Crosse, but I think its only your beginning. You are certainly destined to wield great influence in your field; and being the official paper you certainly must have grown in a very substantial manner. Anyway there is no disputing how you stand with the public.

I have not seen the Leader for over a year until a few days ago. A friend mailed me a marked copy. That the McGregor stockholders had increased the capital stock of the E. R. Barron Co. eighty thousand dollars, same to be used in improvements. I think they better sell out of the gas business and advertise in the Tribune—if you have room for them. Well, I did not intend to mention this old central deal. But I made a careful comparison and really there isn't any between the Tribune and the Leader. Mr. Finch was the best newspaper man the Leader has ever met.

Regarding the poor old Chronicle I will tell you an amusing incident during Brainard's reign some eight years ago when the claimed three times the circulation they do now and have never proved either. We were to pay the Chronicle a certain sum and they were to do certain things. They allotted the space to us and we paid a flat sum. More if they delivered the goods. Well, it turned out a perfect joke. I think the space they gave us footed up at an inch, perhaps less. We had whole pages, half pages and great write ups. We did not renew the contract. I suppose the Chronicle still catches all the trains. How the people in the surrounding country must grab it. When they can get the Record-Herald at the same cost and hour.

Well you are certainly on the right track. Give the public a square deal. There seems to be no question but the merchants—one or two excepted—are with you—and they should be. You certainly have saved them a lot of money.

Forge ahead and remember this is a very unfashionable season for the "pleasant and smiling grafter."

Sincerely yours,

G. E. REYNOLDS.

NEW MINISTER TO NORWAY APPOINTED

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, June 19.—Herbert H. D. Pierce of Massachusetts has been nominated minister to Norway.

PAPERS FOR NOR-MAL MONEY DRAWN

Council Will Undoubtedly Pass $15,000 Appropriation Tonight

There is ample evidence that it is the expectation of those who are active in support of the normal school site appropriation, that the council will vote the necessary bonds tonight.

Attorney Frank Winter spent many hours today looking up the abstract of the property, and it is said that the papers necessary to the transfer are already drawn.

The council has spent serious thought upon the problem of providing for the site, and it is said that most of the objections are now overcome and that the vote tonight is likely to be unanimous in favor of the provision of funds.

If the money is provided Senator Thomas Morris will carry the city's check for $815,000 to Madison to tender the board of regents at their meeting tomorrow.

GILBERTSON IS IN BANKRUPTCY

Louis Gilbertson, the well known Pearl street shoe man was today forced into bankruptcy as the result of the persistency of certain creditors. Mr. Gilbertson has been enjoying a large business recently, but pressure brought to bear upon him at a time when he was not prepared to meet all obligations promptly, caused him to determine to go into bankruptcy that all creditors might share as well as possible. The North Star Shoe company Saturday garnished his bank account, causing him to take the step. The liabilities are $14,000 and the assets a trifle over $5,000. A meeting of creditors will be held in about ten days. Attorney James Thompson represents Mr. Gilbertson.

Mr. Gilbertson expects to resume business in the city after his present difficulty is straightened out.

FRISCO TO HAVE $12,000,000

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The president has agreed to a proposition of the San Francisco delegation, headed by Lane, by which the secretary of the treasury is given approval that the government will place twelve millions on deposit in San Francisco banks on security of San Francisco city bonds.

The term of years during which the deposits may remain is not determined, but Shaw is given assurance that they will not be called in until the treasury needs them.

Judge Fruit will return home tomorrow. He has been holding court in Viroqua. All the suits were court cases and nothing of local concern was disposed of.

DRINKING WATER FOR FIREMEN

An important resolution will be introduced by Alderman Houska at a meeting of the city council in the near future. It will provide for the establishment of pumps in the various engine houses. The alderman will support the resolution by presenting figures to show that the money now spent for ice to preserve the drinking water which the firemen are obliged to carry in pails from neighboring houses, will in the course of a couple of years pay for the pumps. The practice is distasteful to firemen, and the condition is unsanitary in a high degree.

FROM USE OF CITY PROPERTY

Papers are Already Drawn in Case

GROUND FOR A CITY PARK

And Plaintiffs Contend City has no Right to Lease it

Litigation that is said to be pending promises to place another stumbling block in the way of the Interstate Fair association. Residents in the eastern portion of the city are authoritatively reported to have taken steps to prevent the holding of the fair on the present grounds.

The records, the plaintiffs declare, will show that the present fairgrounds were ceded to the city for park purposes, and it is contended that the city has no legal right to lease the grounds for fair purposes, the conveyance explicitly limiting the use to which the city has a right to put the grounds to "park purposes."

Throughout a large section of the eastern portion of the city, there has long been antagonism to the fair grounds. It is claimed that the cattle, sheep and horse stalls make the place as objectionable as a stockyard.

Within the past week a number of the objectors met and decided to take legal steps to stop the use of the grounds for the fair. A lawyer has been consulted, and the papers have been drawn upon which will be issued restraining the fair directors from further use of the park for this purpose. A cancellation of the lease will be sought. If this action is successful, it is likely there will be no interstate fair this fall. The names of the plaintiffs, and of the attorney, have been temporarily suppressed.

A party plaintiff pointed out to The Tribune that a portion of the grounds was acquired by the city under condemnation proceedings providing that it was to be used as a public park. Counsel has given the opinion that this absolutely renders its use for other purposes illegal.

CHORAL CLUB DIRECTORS MEET WEDNESDAY

Directors of the Choral club met yesterday to prepare plans for the coming year, but as only a few of the directors were present the meeting was postponed until tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the La Crosse club.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Stewart at the Bijou

Presenting "Uncle Josh on the Bowery"

"How in the world do they do it?" was the question asked a gentleman by his companion when they came out of the Bijou last evening. "I didn't think it was possible to improve on last week's show but this week's seems even better," she continued. This and numerous other words of praise were heard on the street last night regarding the new bill at the Bijou. The grand bill opened by an overture by that master of the piano, Geo. Ramig, followed by the best novelty act in the country, Claud Rauf on the slack wire. This artist defies the laws of gravitation and juggles everything from a rubber ball to a kitchen chair while standing on the wire, and last but not least, rides a unicycle across the loosely suspended wire. The act was warmly received at each performance yesterday which it justly deserved. Mr. Rauf is assisted by his beautiful wife, whose graceful presence adds much to a very clever performance. Mr. and Mrs. Cal Stewart in "Uncle Josh on the Bowery," tells a pretty story of life, in that world famed district of New York, and in such capable hands is exceedingly interesting. Comedy and pathos is mingled in a way that makes the tears stand in one's eyes both from the touch it gives the heart-strings and the laughter it evokes. Both are artists of the first water. Mr. Stewart holds the enviable reputation of being the maker of the famous Uncle Josh phonograph records. Wee Baby Mary, pretty as a wax doll, sweet as a barrel of candy and as flexible as a piece of rubber, performed very difficult tricks with the ease and grace of one many times her senior. This little tot is a mar-

Offer to Share Profits With Employees

Fall River, Mass., June 19.—The Cotton Manufacturers' association of Fall River, representing practically all the cotton mill interests in this city, has in a letter to the textile council offered to guarantee the mill operatives a profit-sharing dividend of not less than 5 per cent. This offer was made in response to a request from the textile council that the wage scale paid before the general reduction of 12½ per cent. in 1904 was put into effect be restored.

The officers of the textile union would not express an opinion on the probability of an acceptance of the offer. It seemed to be the general opinion among the operatives, however, that it would be refused, because the request for a restoration of wages was made chiefly on account of dissatisfaction with the sliding scale on account of its being open to influence by the speculative market. This objection, it is held, is not removed by the manufacturers' proposition and the margin guaranteed is less than one-half of the percentage of the restoration asked for.

Killed Mother

MANITOWOC, Wis., June 19.—Wenzel Kunz who is alleged murdered his aged mother several months ago by pounding her head to a pulp with a flatiron while in a fit of insanity, was this afternoon committed to the northern hospital for the insane at Oshkosh. The charge of murder was dropped.

Bialystok Scene of Weeping Women and Parading Soldiers

Bialystok, Russia, June 19.—Quiet reigns throughout this devastated town. The total figures of the casualties are not available, but seventy bodies were buried yesterday. This is alleged to be less than half the total of the killed. Jewish estimates say that not less than 200 were killed. The number of wounded is enormous. Some of the corpses were mere masses of pulped flesh, the wounded in some cases having scarcely a sound bone in their bodies.

Continuous Picture of Pillage.
The correspondent of the Associated Press, who arrived here Sunday, but who was not allowed to telegraph until the present, and who then was required to write dispatches in French in order to facilitate the censorship, found the story of the riot written in large letters in the aspect of streets, which were one continuous picture of arson and pillage. The windows and doors of the Jewish houses were wide open, giving a view of their wrecked interior, or were boarded up with rude wooden shutters. Everywhere could be seen weeping women hunting for traces of killed or wounded relatives.

Christian Houses Were Marked.
The principal stores were either devastated wrecks or mere mounds of ashes, among which the wretched proprietors, last week rich but now reduced to poverty, were wandering about weakly endeavoring to ascertain the extent of their misfortunes. Before practically every house left intact hung an ikon with a burning lamp, and the street doors were marked with great crosses made with chalk or of cloth, to show that the inmates were Christians. The streets were patrolled by detachments of cavalry and infantry, and the cordon of troops drawn around the town when the outbreak first occurred was still maintained.

POLICE STATION ATTACKED
Hebrew Revolutionists Are the Assaultants—Dispersed by Cossacks.

Another attack was made Sunday evening on the police station by armed revolutionists, who occupied a house nearby. They opened fire from the building on the police, but a force of Cossacks was gathered, the house was stormed, and the revolutionists were dispersed. It was feared that the latter, who are members of the Jewish band and are enraged and embittered by the slaughter of their co-religionists, would seize the occasion of the funeral of the victims yesterday to make a new attack, but the governor general took the necessary measures to prevent it and the interments passed off without incident.

The scene at the Jewish hospital where the majority of the Jewish dead and most severely wounded were taken was terrible. When the correspondent arrived there the grass plot outside the hospital was covered with mangled corpses, arranged in two long rows, awaiting burial. The wooden walk from the gate to the door over which the bodies were carried was stained with blood. The dead and wounded were still arriving. Many of them had been lying untouched in the streets for two days. Only the most severely wounded were taken inside the hospital.

The bodies of some of these were frightfully bruised, broken and mangled. A constant stream of unhappy persons visited the hospital yard, and when allowed to do so the wards, endeavoring to locate and identify members of their families or friends, or obtain the bodies of dear ones for burial. Some of the bodies had already been removed, but the hospital attendants asserted that about 100 in all had been brought in and that many more remained in the outskirts of Bialystok, where it was still unsafe for the Red Cross detachments to venture.

At the district hospital there were six dead persons and eight or ten wounded. These were all Christians. One man had been killed and two wounded as a result of the explosion of bombs. The others had bullet wounds. These bodies were not mangled or mutilated, as was the case with the Jews, whose hands, arms and legs were sometimes chopped off from mere wantonness.

Gov. Pattison Dead

Cincinnati, June 19.—John M. Pattison governor of Ohio, died at his home in Milford, a suburb of this city, at 4:20 p. m. yesterday. He passed a good night, and there was no report of any serious change during the day. During the afternoon the news from his home was considered favorable and the announcement of death came as a surprise. He had been ill ever since his election.

Eaton, O., June 19.—The oath of office has been administered to Acting Governor Andrew L. Harris here by Judge Fisher, of the common pleas bench.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.
Daniel Bante of Ottumville, Iowa, writes: "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all." Sold by O. T. Erhart.

vel. When she makes her appearance on the stage one seems possessed with a desire to fondle and caress the little dear, so charming is her personality. Hamilton and Wiley in their sketch "Polly," pleased. An announcement of a change was made and for the balance of the week they will produce a comedy sketch, "A Gentleman of Quality." Jack O'Toole, the popular singer of pictured melodies, has another good song, "Starlight," which he sings in his usual good style. The new pictures are far above the average. Late pictures of the burning of San Francisco showing the stricken city in flames and also after the conflagration are very interesting and wonderfully life like. The tearing down of the partly wrecked seven million dollar city hall, the razing of St. Patrick's church, the feeding of Chinamen at the Presidio being exceptionally interesting. "A Winter Straw Ride" is another fine picture and the grand winter sport pictured so life like these hot days make one almost envy the happy girls and boys. A grand show is the verdict of pleased patrons.

Miners Resume

Kansas City, June 19.—A majority of the soft coal mines shut down on April 1 in Missouri, Kansas, Indian Territory and Arkansas, has resumed operations as far as heard from, in compliance with the Kansas City contract recently signed by officers of the United Mine Workers of America and the Southwestern Coal Operators' association.

A revolt in one district, No. 21, composed of Indian Territory and Arkansas, is threatened, however, and representatives of eight local unions in the neighborhood of Hartford, Ark., may continue the strike. The representatives assert that the Kansas City conference attempted to violate laws of the state of Arkansas that were passed at the request of the miners and in the interest of the mine workers. They say that if the miners are to enter into an unlawful agreement with the operators they can never expect further legislation in their favor.

Attention!

Those best informed agree that the Salvation Army do an important and useful work among the down-trodden and criminals.

As the people are responsible—in part—for these schools of vice and lewdness, should we not build a Salvation Army or Mission Hall or Meeting House, for schools of entreaty to better lives? To give or furnish the money without interest.

Perhaps some Building Contractor can easily solicit the money and would like to build the Hall.

SOME PEOPLE IN MADISON COURT REVIEW OMITTED AND ACTUALLY TOOK TO BOATS SUNDAY Meat Inspection Bill is Agreed Upon

Madison, Wis., June 19.—The flood of waters did not come upon the earth. The "fire and brimstone" promise by "Professor" Jones has postponed its dire visitation. Madison still stands. The sparkling lakes dance in the June sunshine and the squirrels in Capitol park frisk among the trees. Yesterday morning, like returning sheep, some 15,000 superstitious Madisonians came home. They did not take the main streets. They slunk through narrow alleys and through vacant lots. They entered at the back doors and emerged later sneering at the predictions of Brer Jones.

Words of a Negro "Prophet."

Fearing a catastrophe such as the one that came on Sodom and Gomorrah, hundreds of persons left the city Sunday to escape "the wrath to come." For two days clouds had hovered over hill and dale, and those who had listened to the exhortations of Brer Jones, the negro evangelist, had begun to sniff brimstone. The words of the negro prophet then recurred to them: "An' on de thud'd day, breth'n, de clouds will hove in de sky. An' de watahs ob de lake will rise up. Dey will visit dis heah city wif destruction, an' de watahs will close up aroun' us like a mighty wall."

There Was a Big Exodus.

And hearing these things the kings of the earth and the great men and the rich men and the chief captains and the mighty men and every bondsman and every freeman hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains. But they have come back today, rejoiced at not finding the town buried fifty fathoms deep under the waters of the lake. The exodus was unprecedented. Hotels were left without negro employees. Servant girls took a day off, wrapping their possessions in sheets and handkerchiefs. Bachelor girls took their canary birds and cats. The banks sent requisitions for more money. Depositors made haste to draw out savings accounts, regardless of the reassurances of the cashier.

PEOPLE TOOK TO BOATS

They Thought Aboard Ship Safest In Time of a Flood.

In the railroad yards extra cars had been sidetracked to be pressed into service when the exodus began. The demand for tickets to the high places nearly swamped the local passenger agents. Bookings on the little excursion boats that ply on Lakes Mendota and Monona were eagerly bought up. If the floods were coming, and if the waters were about to rise, the people believed safety would lie in ships.

In spite of the comforting assurances of the newspapers and the weather observer, the panic spread. The register of deeds, Mr. Storer, Madison's "oldest resident," declared there was no occasion for excitement. "I have been here since 1837," he announced, "and there never has been a flood. Madison stands up too high. The waters would have to flood the whole of Dane county."

"Jud" Stone, another old-timer, likewise sought to allay the panic, but the preparations for the flight went on. The telephone company was besieged with calls to "wake me as soon as the flood comes." Night watchmen and policemen were given similar instructions, and those who were courageous enough to go to bed Saturday night slept with their boots on, and with one eye on the alarm clock.

Early Sunday morning the evacuation of the town was going forward merrily. Those who had automobiles took to the highways. Vehicles of all kinds were impressed into service. Family belongings were removed in wheelbarrows and go-carts. The day passed without incident. The vanguard of the home-comers began to arrive during the wee sma' hours. They tried to sneak home in the dark. Yesterday they were smiling sheepishly, and hereafter will place no credence in the vapors of an ignorant prophet.

American Boys Won Belle and Nearly Lost Their Lives in California

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 19.—George C. Boldt, Jr., son of the millionaire proprietor of the Bellevue-Stratford and Waldorf-Astoria hotels, and his friend, Howard Throckmorton of New York are coming to visit friends in the east with two beautiful brides, after a series of romantic adventures against many vengeful Mexican beans in the famous bull fighting town of Tia Juana, upon the Mexican border.

Dispatches received by the friends here today stating that "all's well" relieved considerably the anxiety that has existed over the safety of the two, whose stirring adventures have only been hinted at in brief news dispatches from different parts of California, and which resulted in an attempt to murder Mr. Throckmorton by Mexicans who trailed the elopers from Tia Juana.

In January a two line dispatch from Tia Juana stated that Mr. Boldt Jr. and Mr. Throckmorton were there on a trip to improve Mr. Boldt's health.

Boldt Wedded to Belle.
Two weeks ago a dispatch from Los Angeles stating that Boldt and Throckmorton had arrived at a small town near there and that Boldt had announced his marriage to Miss Angeline Savin of Tia Juana.

Last week came a dispatch from San Diego stating that Boldt and Throckmorton had been stabbed by Mexicans supposed to be jealous.

Next day came a dispatch from the same place stating that Throckmorton would soon be able to leave the hospital and had announced his marriage to Miss Estelle Savin, the ceremony having taken place at the same time Boldt was married.

Private dispatches have added much to the knowledge of one or two of Mr. Boldt's friends here, and one today said he had not been able to piece together a complete story. He said:

"Those boys have had a lively time, and I feel sure they were in more danger for a time than their friends here may have guessed. Tia Juana is not Philadelphia, and jealousy there means more than jealousy here."

"Miss Estelle and Miss Angeline Savin are daughters of the former Mexican consul to Tia Juana. Neither girl is 20 years old. Both have been the toast of army officers, wealthy young mine owners and business men. Besides being beautiful girls, they are highly accomplished. They speak four languages and are splendid musicians, Angeline in particular, being master of the violin. They ride with the grace of true horsewomen and can play tennis with that splendid energy of the western girl shown by Miss Sutton.

Both Beautiful Dancers.

"Both girls are graceful dancers and sometimes entertain their friends with Mexican dances which they have studied, and when attired for these dances they form a picture which can never be forgotten by those fortunate enough to see them."

"Naturally the girls formed the social center of their town, which is on the California border line of Mexico, and which is out of the ordinary course of tourists, excepting those attracted there by a bull fight, given with true Spanish gorgeousness. They had suitors by the score and rivalry was running high at the time of the arrival of Boldt and Throckmorton."

Boldt's name carried a welcome to the best social set of the town and he and his companion had been in town only a few days when they were introduced to the sisters, and from the first they entered the list of suitors. They met with many fiery glances from young Mexicans and young westerners, who felt angry at this appearance of new rivals.

Washington, June 19.—The basis of a complete agreement on the meat inspection legislation between President Roosevelt and the house committee on agriculture has been arrived at through a conference at the White House. Speaker Cannon represented the committee in this instance, and subsequently spent some time explaining the situation to the committee in its room at the Capitol. The bill was practically completed when the committee adjourned.

Court Review Is Eliminated.

It will authorize an annual appropriation of $3,000,000 to pay the cost of inspection, and will contain no provision for the levy of an assessment to make up any deficiency in the amount available for this work, as suggested by Cowan, representing the Texas cattle growers, and later urged by the president. The court review provision will not be contained in the measure. This action meets the suggestion of the president. The words "in the judgment of the secretary of agriculture" will not be inserted as suggested by the president, and this conclusion now meets Roosevelt's approval.

Date on the Label Goes Out.

The section waiving the civil service law for one year in the selection of inspectors will go out of the provision, also one of the president's recommendations. With these changes made the president has indicated his entire satisfaction with the measure. There is to be no date on the label of the packing of the meat food product. In this the president yields to the committee. The language which gives inspectors the right to the packing plants at all times is amplified by the words "whether the same be in operation or not."

Guarantee of Rights "Goes."

The guarantee of the constitution to every man to have his grievances heard before a court was presented to the president forcefully as to why the decision of the secretary of agriculture should not be made final, as would be the case should the words "in the discretion of the secretary of agriculture" be inserted throughout the measure. In this argument, it is said, the president acquiesced on the ground of it containing a fundamental principle of guaranteed rights.

Why Cannon Was Active.

Ordinarily Speaker Cannon does not take such active part in legislation as he has in the present instance. It has been explained, however, that he regards the passage of an adequate meat inspection bill with all possible speed as vitally essential to the welfare of many important industries throughout the country.

TILLMAN'S ATTACK ON WALSH
Says That Some of the Chicago Bank-ers' Acts Were Criminal.

Washington, June 19.—Tillman in the senate called up his resolution providing for an investigation of the question of national bank contributions to political campaigns, and also relative to the recent failure of the Chicago National bank. Speaking to the resolution Tillman said that Senator Aldrich had waived aside the resolution on the ground that the senate had recently passed a bill prohibiting the banks from making campaign contributions, but Tillman contended that such action on the part of the senate was not sufficient. Believing that the banks were the principal source of revenue of the Republican political committee, he did not believe that the house would pass the bill prior to the election of next fall.

Speaking of the Chicago bank failure Tillman presented extracts from testimony of Banker Fenton, of Chicago, taken by the house committee on banking, to the effect that the disaster was due to loans made by the bank to concerns in which the president of the bank (John R. Walsh) was interested. He said it was "known that some of Mr. Walsh's acts have been criminal."

Hopkins replied that Tillman had been misled by irresponsible Chicago men, and declared that the South Carolina senator's "tirade" had proved another illustration of the fact that "a little learning is a dangerous thing." He declared that the transactions in Chicago had been entirely straightforward and honorable. He said that Eckels had informed him that not only depositors and stockholders would be fully paid, but that several millions in addition could be saved, and defended Walsh as for many years one of the great bankers of the country. He had not investigated the question as to whether Walsh had violated the criminal law, but he knew that Walsh had stood ready right along to meet any such charges.

GAS IS FATAL

PEORIA, Ill., June 19.—Raymond Charles, the 20 year old son of Haller E. Charles, deputy collector of internal revenue, was found dead in a bathtub in his father's residence, 811 Fayette street. He was overcome by the fumes from a gas heater.

The father, alarmed at the young man's long absence, went to call him, and found the limp form of his son stretched at full length in the bathtub. Apparently no water had entered the lungs.

The deputy coroner made an investigation of the death. The only theory advanced is that the foul air in the room, combined with the fumes from the heater, formed a deadly gas which killed the young man before he was able to struggle from the bath tub.

BURSTING PIPE SPOILS RECORDS

MADISON, Wis., June 19.—By the breaking of a large steam pipe in the basement of the capitol, nearly all of the big books and records stored in the room beneath the state land office will have to be rebound, and perhaps some of the records recopied. All of the books are exceedingly valuable, as they contain the records of the state land sales and transfers since the state was organized.

The sheepskin bindings on the big books were burned to a crisp, the glue ran like water from the backs of the books and in some cases the steam blurred the writing on the outer pages. If the accident had occurred while the clerical force in the land department was at work, some one might have injured. The damage is estimated at between $2,000 and $3,000.

The pipe was one recently put in to carry steam from the boilers in the south wing to a new elevator in the north wing. The state carries its own insurance, setting aside a certain sum each year to bear any loss from accidents caused by fire or steam.

TALE OF WOE WINS SUIT FOR WOOER

VIENNA, June 19.—A rich widow has sued a wealthy landowner named Szabo for damaging her reputation by a long courtship without proposing marriage. Defendant admitted that he courted the widow, but pleaded fate had prevented him from proposing to her, and he told the court a touching "hard luck" story. He said he had made strenuous efforts to ask the widow to marry him, but all were unsuccessful.

Stepped on Dog's Tail.

The first time he was just on the point of proposing, when he stepped on the tail of the woman's pet dog. The consequences of this misadventure so upset him he did not dare to suggest marriage.

Subsequently his courage again reached the sticking point, and he drove to the widow's house in a carriage drawn by four horses. He was determined nothing should prevent him from proposing this time, but fate again reached out its hand, and courage and determination availed nothing. The carriage upset and he was thrown into a mud puddle. His plight caused his bravery to wane, and he returned home to await a more favorable opportunity.

Deluge of Green Paint.

The third time he started to walk to the widow's, but, heedless of the ill luck bound to follow such a foolhardy venture, he attempted to pass under a painter's ladder. Fate again had an eye on him, and just as he got under the ladder the painter upset a pot of green paint over him.

Szabo took this last warning to heart, and concluded the widow was not for him. He produced witnesses to prove the statements, which the court accepted, and he was acquitted.

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

The purifying action and curative properties of this great remedy have made "S. S. S. For The Blood" a household saying, and thousands who are today enjoying perfect health owe their recovery from blood or skin diseases to this universally used blood medicine. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks which possess not only cleansing and healing ingredients, but building-up and strengthening properties to keep the blood in perfect order. No one can be well when the blood is impure; they lack the energy and strength that is natural with health, the complexion becomes pale and sallow, the vitality is weakened and they suffer from a general broken down condition. When the waste or refuse matter, which nature intends shall be thrown off, is left in the system because of a sluggish, torpid condition of the expelling members, it is absorbed into the blood, making this vital stream weak, sour and acrid, and its condition is manifested by boils, pimples, rashes, blotches and other eruptions of the skin. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of blood taint or poison of every character, makes the blood fresh and strong and gives energy to the entire body. When the blood has been cleansed by S. S. S. all skin diseases and eruptions pass away and the smooth, clear skin, glowing with health, shows that the body is being nourished by rich, pure blood. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood disorders, and for their cure nothing equals S. S. S. It does not injuriously affect the most delicate parts of the body and can be taken with perfect safety by old or young. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.

Entered as second-class matter June 22, 1904, at the Post Office at La Crosse, Wis., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THE NORMAL VOTE TONIGHT.

The Tribune has every confidence that the city council will tonight provide for the appropriation of funds for the normal site. This is one of the things that the taxpayers must pay for, if they get it. It had been hoped that something of that spirit that has induced great men in many cities to endow the town with something of lasting advantage, would manifest itself here, as was indicated by circumstances antedating the appearance of the necessity of a resort to the purses of the taxpayers. As that is something that must come off handed, and voluntarily, there being not the slightest right to demand it, the duty of the council to substitute business for philanthropy is plain. It would be a serious task for any alderman to attempt re-election after adversely acting on this proposition. None of them will attempt it, probably.

NOR HAS THE CHRONICLE THANKED "BILLY."

The Milwaukee Free Press yesterday indulged in a few columns of self praise because it had reached the age of five years. Yet it had no space for acknowledgement of its obligation to the Hon. Isaac Stephenson for having time and again saved it from impending bankruptcy.—Morning Chronicle.

THE DISGRACE OF THE "LOWER HOUSE."

... With a display of alacrity that might pass as willingness but for surrounding conditions that stamp it as terror of public opinion, the house committee on agriculture has fallen over itself in according to the reasonable and persistent demands of the president of the United States that the meat inspection bill be so drafted as to enforce safeguards essential to the protection of the public health.

Shame to say it, it has been the house more than the senate that has so conducted itself as to invite a spanking from the executive "big stick." The house is elected directly by the people, and should be closer to the people than is the senate, whose close association with the trusts and monopolies has fastened upon it the unsavory appellation, "The House of Dollars." But the senate has acted with greater liberality and efficiency than has the house. It may be that this is due to the fact that there is a greater aggregate of intelligence in the upper house. It may be due to the condition that the Chicago representatives held committee appointments enabling them to become as obstructive as possible. At any rate, it is true.

We are of the opinion that the shifting of the dirt that is anticipated in the senate, should be carried to the house. Attracting less attention because of their individually lesser importance, the stand-pat element of the house as richly deserves to be eliminated from the public life of this country as does the snow-capped aristocracy in the American "house of peers." The repeated slaughter in the house of the bills providing for funds to establish and maintain a navigable waterway in the upper Mississippi valley, done and done again in the interest of the railroads, is sufficient evidence that not all the rascality on earth is confined to the august senate of the United States of America.

ROWDIES IN PETTIBONE PARK.

There should be adopted some effective method of policing Pettibone Park. The complaint is constantly coming to the Tribune that women and children are accosted and frightened by bad characters there, while it has occurred that women accompanied by their husbands have been bothered. The malefactors are of two classes. There are often members of the tough element of the city lounging about the park, who usually deport themselves in a discourteous manner from sheer devilment, taking advantage of being beyond police surveillance to conduct themselves in an obnoxious manner they would not dare assume within the city limits. The other, and more dangerous class, is the tramps that congregate in the park, unable to enter the city because of the toll taker on the wagon bridge.

It would be well for the park commission and the city council to get together and discuss the possibility of something being done about this matter. It seems a shame that the enjoyment of a park that has been so generously donated to the people as a playground, should be interfered with by a conscienceless lot of scamps and rowdies whose just deserts are the stone pile for all the time the law allows.

TOOTING OUR OWN HORN.

And incidentally it might not be out of the way, to add that we really print the news and print it in such a way that it is suitable for the family, the office or the business house. There is no suppression of facts the public has a right to know—no suppression because it is the desire of some special interest that it be suppressed. There is no coloring of news; it is given to the public as it happens; we have no desire to make news and are not responsible for it when it is made, although we are responsible to the public for the delivery of news the public thinks it is buying when it buys a newspaper. We have refrained from sensationalism. All the news that is news" has been the motto in the news department, and the readers know that the motto has been lived up to.

No, the above was not written in the Tribune office, but it is so appropriate that, without wishing to deprive its author of the well earned privilege of using it, we have dared to pirate it for publication. It is what the Milwaukee Free Press has to say of itself at the close of five years of a strenuous journalism as it has been the lot of any newspaper to enjoy. We say, "enjoy" advisedly, for there is enjoyment in fighting for right and putting the hosts of corruption to route and discomfort. The Tribune congratulates the Free Press upon its accomplishments; it believes it has done all that a public journal could do to carry forward the banner beneath which honest men of this state, regardless of party lines, have marched under the leadership of the greatest man Wisconsin has produced.

CONFUSION WORSE CONFOUNDED.

The further one delves into the mysteries of "skiddoo," and "23," the greater the uncertainty that shrouds the origin of these latest inventions of the popular slang artists. We had presumed that ignorance concerning them was confined to up-country towns like La Crosse. We know in La Crosse that it was "23" for Freeport, we know that it was "skiddoo" for Moriarity. But we don't know what it was, at that. Their finish? Or 30, maybe? But nothing more definite.

However, we are not so untutored, after all. Down in Chicago they are able to make but a meager guess at "skiddoo" and "23." Not so much to throw new light upon the subject as to demonstrate the unsettled condition of the Chicago journalistic mind, we quote as follows from the Chicago American:

"'Skiddoo' and '23' are just now the most discussed of slang phrases, by reason of the uncertainty of their etymology. The latter has variously been explained as being a telegraphers' signal, meaning 'clear the wire'; as coming from the racetrack, because never more than twenty-two horses are entered in a race; as belonging to the circus, because the twenty-third 'display' is always the last, and as being borrowed from Dickens' 'Tale of Two Cities,' Sidney Carton being the twenty-third man to mount the guillotine. 'Skiddoo' is sometimes supposed to come from skeddadle, meaning to flee precipitately, to send off or away, and sometimes to come from skid, to slide without turning, as 'The skids for yours.' Since, however, a classical origin has been advanced for '23,' it is no more than right that 'skiddoo' should be similarly honored.

"Dickens' 'Tale of Two Cities' was written in 1859. Twenty-seven years before Lord Macaulay wrote that splendid 'fragment,' 'The Armada,' the last verses of which run:

"Night sank upon the dusky beach and on the purple sea,
Such night in England ne'er had been and ne'er again shall be.
From Eddystone to Berwick bounds, from Lynn to Milford Bay,
The time of slumber was as bright and busy as the day.
For swift to East and swift to West the ghastly war flame spread,
High on St. Michael's mount it shone; it shone on Beachy head,
Far on the deep the Spaniards saw, along each southern shire,
Cape beyond cape, in endless range, those twinkling points of fire.

"And on and on, without a pause, untired they bounded still;
All night from tower to tower they sprang; they sprang from hill to hill,
Till the proud peak unfurled the flag o'er Derwin's rocky dales;
Till, like volcanoes, flared to heaven the stormy hills of Wales;
Till twelve fair counties saw the blaze on Malvern's lonely height;
Till streamed in crimson on the wind the Wreckin's crest of light;
Till broad and fierce the star came forth on Ely's stately fane.
And town and hamlet rose in arms o'er all the boundless plain;
Till Belvoir's lordly terraces the sign to Lincoln sent;
And Lincoln sped the message on o'er the wide vale of Trent;
Till Skiddaw saw the fire that burned on Gaunt's ambattled pile
And the red glare of Skiddaw aroused the burghers of Carlisle!"

"Carlisle is the most northern of the cities on the west coast of England. By the time the warning reached her from Skiddaw the hope of success for the Armada was gone, and very shortly thereafter it was '23' for the great Spanish fleet."

It is to be noted with some amusement that Editor Gelatt has his little pinch of salt ready for the bird of Public Confidence, which he so frequently has insulted. Unfortunately, however, this particular bird will not eat from the hand that fed it stones.

A Business Deal.

The press of the state is being unjustly affected by the provisions of the anti-pass law which regards editorial transportation as so much "dead head mileage." It is an arbitrary ruling that is arousing the fraternity to active protest. Editorial transportation should not come under the head of free passes. Every publisher who uses transportation enters into a contract with the railroads to sell so much space for so many miles of transportation. It is a simple business contract and there is no dead-head business about it. The publisher pays for his transportation and should be entitled to all the prerogatives and privileges that belong to any purchaser of any commodity.—Merrill Advocate.

POOR CLAM FISHER FINDS PEARL WORTH $100,000

RED WING, Minn., June 19.—Yesterday morning a poor clamfisher of this place, working in the Mississippi river on the Wisconsin side opposite this place, found what is believed to be the largest pearl in the world.

It weighs eighty-five grains, diamond weight. One much smaller sold for $70,000 a few years ago. William Bates and wife were dragging for clams for the button factories and had found such small results for weeks that he decided to make one more drag and quit the business.

This time he brought up a small number of clams and Mrs. Bates quickly discovered the pearl. It is round as a marble. It will probably sell for about $100,000.

Certainly a Monster.

(From the Trempealeau Gazette.)
One day last week while Mr. Druggan was working on the section of the C. & N. W. near the cemetery the dangerous attack was made. It so happened that Mr. Druggan was about eighty rods from the crew when he was attacked by a Plesiosaurus, the most dreaded of all beasts. Upon seeing this beast Mr. Druggan began running toward the rest of the crew, but it was of no use. In a few seconds the vicious animal became entwined about Mr. Druggan and was about to devour his prey when the rest of the crew happened to look up and see Mr. Druggan in the most dangerous position a civilized man could be. Quick as a wink the men rushed to his assistance, and after a bloody encounter Mr. Druggan was released and the animal was captured and tied to a telegraph pole. And the crew proceeded up the track to do some repairs. But on returning they were surprised to find the animal missing. In their absence the animal became enraged when it found out it had been robbed of its prey, and with one vicious lunge it broke the two inch line that was tied about its neck like a piece of thread. And it ate up seven or eight rails, and as many ties, and for dessert it finished upon the hand car then picked its teeth with a pick handle and then went back to its cave in the Tamarack hills. This huge serpent was no more than a common grass snake which frightened Mr. Druggan.

NAPHTHA EXPLOSION NEARLY BURNS ENTIRE TRAIN

Bellefontaine, O., June 19.—A freight train on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway pulled apart near Mix Station and subsequently the two sections ran together again with sufficient force to explode one of the six cars of naphtha in the train.

A fierce fire followed, in which the entire train was practically destroyed. The fire spread to the woods on either side of the track and burned the telegraph poles and ties in the track. A special train of tank cars filled with water was sent from here to fight the fire. None of the trainmen was hurt, but the property damage will be heavy.

M. G. EVENSON, OLD SETTLER, VISITS HIS SON HERE

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Evenson of St. Paul are visiting their son, Dr. H. Clay Evenson of this city.

Beside John M. Levy Mr. Evenson is perhaps the oldest living settler on Prairie La Crosse. He came to La Crosse in 1849 when Levy, Nathan Myrick and a few others were the leading business men. He settled in Coon Valley and for a time was employed in the old Kellogg hotel. He was here but four years, leaving in 1853 for St. Paul, where he has since resided.

While here he called upon Mr. Levy, who recognized him though he had not seen him for a half century. Mr. Evenson also visited familiar scenes in Mormon coulees and surrounding country and recognized many old landmarks, pointing them out to his son who accompanied him.

Contracts for the erection of a hatchery building at Minocqua, for which the last legislature made an appropriation, will be let at this meeting of the board. They expect to put up a handsome and substantial building of boulders, with cement panels and half-timbered construction for the second story. The following table shows the number and kinds of fish distributed from the state hatcheries during the first half of the current year:

EMPLOYEES ARE HELD BLAMELESS FOR THE SUICIDE

Coroner Ed Cronon has exonerated employees of the poor farm as blameless in connection with the suicide of Lorenz Pepperl yesterday, announced in last evening's Tribune. The coroner visited the poor farm in the afternoon to ascertain the cause of death and to hold an inquest. It was found that in falling Pepperl struck on his back. Both collar bones were broken causing death. He had wrapped a rosary about his hands before leaping backward from the second story fire escape landing to his death. Coroner Cronon decided there might have been negligence upon the part of employees, but investigation proves that the old man selected the noon hour for the deed when 11 other inmates and employees were at dinner. He had been acting strangely of late. The case evidently, is despondency over his hopeless circumstances.

A suit is on trial in justice court today in which J. C. Langley of Galesville is plaintiff in an action to recover the trunks containing the clothing and personal effects of Drs. Johnson and Whipple, the chiropractors, now doing time in the county jail upon a conviction for violation of the state medical laws.

The plaintiff claims that he paid the sum of $30, to Louis Omergerberg, who had acquired them upon a judgment and attachment issued by a local court upon complaint of Miller & Wolf. Alleging that he, having paid the first judgment he was entitled to hold the goods under his contract with Johnson and Whipple against other claimants, he seeks to recover them from Omergerberg who holds them in his capacity as constable. Both Johnson and Whipple appeared as witnesses in the case. C. L. Hood appeared for the plaintiff and Miller & Wolf for the defendant. The trial was not concluded.

ROOSEVELT AND TILLMAN MAY KISS AND MAKE UP

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 19.—There is a prospect that before the end of the Roosevelt administration the president and Senator Tillman of South Carolina will shake hands and make up. Recent remarks by each indicate that no bad feeling would be displayed if the two should happen to come face to face all of a sudden.

"I like Senator Tillman," said President Roosevelt to Senator Galigner the other day, when the latter called at the White house on a matter in which the South Carolinian was interested. "e can't do anything to make me mad any more."

In his final speech on the railroad rate bill Senator Tillman started his colleagues by commending the efforts of the president to put an effective rate bill on the statute books. A caller discussed the incident with President Roosevelt.

"Do you know," said the president, "I did not think it possible for Senator Tillman to do anything that would surprise me?"

Senator Tillman was talking about the president to a friend.

"Well, we got a good law," said the friend, "but did you ever think that a commission might be created that would be dominated by railroads?"

"O, no," replied the pitchfork statesman, "I haven't got much use for the man in the White house, but I guess he's straight."

All of which goes to show that the man from South Carolina and Mr. Roosevelt may yet get together and let bygones be bygones.

HOUSTON PEOPLE MISREPRESENTED

The people of Houston are angered over the report of the Houston-Peerless baseball game in that place last Sunday in which they were credited with being "farmers," "rowdies," and were accused of "throwing sticks, stones," etc.

W. J. Naylor, cashier of the Citizens' state bank of Houston and one of the most prominent citizens of Houston, accompanied by one of the baseball boys, called at the Tribune office today to complain of the reports published concerning the game.

The game was in every particular an orderly one and Mr. Naylor says the Peerless boys were well treated. It was a surprise to the people of Houston that they should return to this city and give out a report of ill treatment, so glaringly false and so unjust to the citizens of Houston. Mr. Naylor was greatly displeased over the report, as every effort is being made at present to put baseball on its feet in Houston, and such reports, he says, make the game unpopular with the people.

The objectionable report was made public by members of the visiting baseball team.

The Sioux City Journal, Perkins' newspaper, claims for Perkins 723 delegates, and gives to Rathbun ninety, claiming that the total of these, or 813, are anti-Cummins' delegates. It gives Governor Cummins 711 delegates.

VANDALIA, Ill., June 19.—When Ed. Glassner went home at noon yesterday he found that his 17 year old wife had eloped with Jesse Chapple and Less Russell, two men who had been stopping at the Glassner home.

The trio left in a covered wagon soon after Glassner started to his work in the morning, going east on the National road. Armed with a shotgun Glassner procured a horse and buggy and started in hot pursuit. He drove all night and could get no trace of the elopers.

Quilla Hastings, father of the Glassner woman, has offered a reward of $100 for the return of his daughter and the arrest of Chapple and Russell.

KING TO INSPECT LA CROSSE AND OTHER MILITIA

REGULAR ARMY MAN CANNOT BE SECURED

Captains Charles Rawlinson and Schultz of the local military company have received the announcement from Adjutant General C. R. Boardman that Gen. Charles King of Milwaukee will conduct the annual field inspection of the Wisconsin National guard at Camp Douglas next month.

An effort was made to get an active officer of the regular army to conduct the inspection, as had been done in former years, but none could be secured because they will be busy with their own duties during the Wisconsin encampment.

Gen. King recently finished the armory inspection of the guard. The system of markings at the camp this year will be the same as that used in former years, and the minimum limit allowed will be 70 points.

GRAFTER IS CALLED COWARDLY SNAKE

MADISON, Wis., June 19.—Decrying the briber and grafter as a vile serpent and coward, and with an urgent plea for purity in politics and a reorganization of the present social state, Bishop Samuel Fallows of Chicago yesterday delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the University of Wisconsin. He had for his subject "Christian Optimism."

Bishop Fallows was strong in upholding the stand of President Roosevelt on muck-rakers, and condemned Chancellor Day of Syracuse university for deprecating the stockyards disclosures and the remedies suggested for the evils. He spoke especially to the fathers and mothers of the graduates, lauding the sacrifices which they made in order that their sons and daughters might enjoy the advantages of a college education.

One orator censured the faculty for treating students as children instead of as men.
